SECRETARY MANAGERS REPORT

Hi Members,

It is with great pleasure I report the trading results of the past 12 months.

Your club has produced another good profit for 2016 – 2017 financial year; this result is a credit to our team of directors and staff, who for many years have put in the hard yards under some intense pressure.

If you think back to early 2000, your club was on the cusp of closing its doors, but for the wisdom of your director's past and present, you have now a club that is not only prospering it is flourishing, these are the days we should never forget, it will keep us vigilant and focussed, so not only can you enjoy the rewards your kids and your kids, kids can also get to enjoy the club and sport you love.

Your board and management will continue to strive to improve your club, investing money in making your club more modern and at the same time keeping it warm, welcoming and friendly.

Your club has achieved a profit of $87,320.06 after depreciation and amortisation of $87,547.66, your club continues to buck the trend in small club category in NSW. The treasurer will report in more detail but I would like to highlight some achievements.

- The club's cash flow as mentioned above is very strong, we currently have $347,148.85, this is strong even after re-investing $228,027.00 back into the club, what this means is your club board is working hard to financially secure your club for the future.
- Bar turnover has improved by significantly 13.02% for 2016-2017, that is a 25% increase in turnover in 2 years, that is excellent, with the increase in turnover it reflects on our nett, which again has increased by 19%, this exceptional growth is achieved by producing first class service and having an excellent caterer, who produces excellent food consistently, our club caterer Steve & Andrea have given our club a great reputation in food service and product, this reputation continues today, for that I am incredibly grateful. Our bar Gross Profit percentage has also been a great result, 61.65%, this GP percentage is something we have worked hard on increasing by keeping a watch on product costs, working with our suppliers to give us a much better price and of course keeping our prices at a level that competes with the other outlets in our area.
- Bar wages are at an acceptable percentage 26%.
- With the additional capital works, our depreciation has also increased.
- Total revenue has increased by 4.6%
- Insurance increased by 25%, of course with the claim last year, we did expect it to rise.

SECRETARY MANAGERS REPORT CONTINUED

As you are all aware the current environment is tough, even tougher for small clubs and it will continue to be tough, so we need to be able create an environment that will attract patrons to the club, with the improvements we have implemented it now starting to show results.

The Garmin Billfish Shootout has again been a huge success, the amount of work that goes into making this tournament so successful is incredible, the organisation begins from as soon as the event finishes. This year we broke another record in angler participation and it is now become the largest game fishing tournament on the east coast of Australia.

This year's Interclub was a great success as far as members participation, I would like to thank everyone who participated and represented your club, members should not lose sight of this tournament, it is our state titles and to win this event gives you the title of state champion, it is something not to be ignored. Each year I mention how good our board has been and again that has not changed, your board have been one of the best boards to work for, they Collaborate and bounce ideas off each other without it getting into arguments, this is a testament to how professional and committed your board is and has been over many years.

Peter Simpson has again led from the front, I write pretty much the same each year, Peters approach, compassion and consideration has been the main instrument in why your board is so proactive and united, Peter of course works tirelessly for the shootout, the amount of time he has spent over the years to bring this event up to worldwide standards is a testament to him, and something he should be very proud of, because I know you the members are.

Treasurer Mike Forbes, who has been my treasurer for 12 years, has not only guided the club into the strongest financial position it has ever had, but he has also guided me and advised me on many things, I can say I have learnt a lot from Mike and I personally would like to thank him for that, and the club should also be thankful we have had such a committed treasurer, as I mentioned earlier, Mike was one of those directors who has stuck it out to bring the club out of the dark days to where we are today. Of course, these results cannot be achieved by an individual, there are many people who have helped your club prosper, I would like to thank all the staff for their continued support and work ethic, I look forward to again working with you in a happy and positive environment.

Our caterers Steve and Andrea have been a huge influence on our great result this year, they continue to produce fantastic food for our members and guest, the board and management thank them for their continued effort.

Every year I get people contacting me about not getting certain information, can you please let me know if this is happening so I can rectify the situation and update my records, contact me either by email or phone, this information is for you the member, I do not want any financial members missing out, so please let me know if you have changed your email address or phone number, better still when you renew your membership check to see if we have the correct information on file.

In closing I thank all members for their contribution and support over the last 12 months and look forward to another huge and successful year in 2018.

Cheers
Nigel

The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets are:

Poker Machines	20%
Plant, Fixtures & Fittings	20%
Carpets	27%

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with the carrying amount. These gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. When revalued assets are sold, amounts included in the revaluation surplus relating to that asset are transferred to retained surplus.

a) Inventories on Hand

All inventories are valued at the lower of cost and current replacement cost.

b) Income Tax

The company has not provided for income tax, as it is currently exempt from income tax under Division 50 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

c) Leases

Lease payments for operating leases, where substantially all the risks and benefits remain with the lessor, are recognised as expenses on a straight line basis over the lease term.

d) Employee Provisions

Short – term employee provisions

Provision is made for the company's obligation for short-term employee benefits. Short-term employee benefits are benefits (other than termination benefits) that are expected to be settled wholly before 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service, including wages, salaries and sick leave. Short-term employee benefits are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the obligation is settled.

Other long-term employee provisions

Provision is made for employees long service and annual leave entitlements not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related service.

Long service leave entitlements have been calculated for employees with more than 5 year service. They have been calculated at the amount expected to be paid when liability is settled

The company's obligations for long-term employee benefits are presented as non-current employee provisions in its statement of financial position, except where the company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period, in which case the obligations are presented as current employee provisions.

f) Revenue

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised upon the delivery of goods to customers.

Revenue from the rendering of services is recognised upon the delivery of the service to the Customers.

Interest revenue is recognised as it is received.

All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST).

(A company limited by guarantee)

ABN 25 292 918 920

g) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to the ATO is included with other receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented in the cash flow statement on a net basis.

h) Cash on Hand

Cash on hand includes cash on hand, deposits held at-call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts.

i) Comparative Figures

Where required by Accounting Standards, comparative figures have been adjusted to conform with changes in presentation for the current financial year.

j) Impairment of Assets

At the end of each reporting period, the company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have been impaired. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset, being the higher of the asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use, is compared to the asset's carrying amount. Any excess of the asset's carrying amount over its recoverable amount is recognised in profit or loss.

Where the future economic benefits of the asset are not primarily dependent upon the assets ability to generate net cash inflows and when the entity would, if deprived of the asset, replace its remaining future economic benefits, value in use is determined as the depreciated replacement cost of an asset.

Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an asset, the entity estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the class of asset belong.

Where an impairment loss on a revalued asset is identified, this is recognised against the revaluation surplus in respect of the same class of asset to the extent that the impairment loss does not exceed the amount in the revaluation surplus for that class of asset.

k.) Accounts Receivable & Other Debtors

Accounts receivable and other debtors include amounts due from members as well as rent receivable from tenants. Receivables expected to be collected within 12 months of the end of the reporting period are classified as current assets. All other receivables are classified as non-current assets.

Accounts receivable are recognised at fair value.

l.) Accounts Payable & Other Payables

Accounts payable and other payables represent the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period for goods and services received by the company during the reporting period which remain unpaid. The balance is recognised as a current liability with the amounts normally paid within 30 days of recognition of the liability.

m.) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the entity has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured. Provisions recognised represent the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period.

n.) Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The directors evaluate estimates and judgments incorporated into the financial statements based on historical knowledge and best available current information. Estimates assume a reasonable expectation of future events and are based on current trends and economic data, obtained externally and within the company.

o.) Fair Value of Assets & Liabilities

The company measures and recognises the following assets and liabilities at fair value on a recurring basis after initial recognition:

- Freehold land & buildings

The company does not subsequently measure any liabilities at fair value on a recurring basis, or any assets or liabilities at fair value on a non-recurring basis.

The following table details the company's accounts receivable and other debtors exposed to credit risk (prior to collateral and other credit enhancements) with ageing analysis and impairment provided for thereon. Amounts are considered as "past due" when the debt has not been settled within the terms and conditions agreed between the company and the customer or counterparty to the transaction. Receivables that are past due are assessed for impairment by ascertaining solvency of the debtors and are provided for where there are specific circumstances indicating that the debt may not be fully repaid to the company. The balances of receivables that remain within initial terms (as detailed in the table below) are considered to be high credit quality.

Based on past experience, the company does not expect the full amount of annual leave or long service balances classified as current liabilities to be settled within the next 12 months. However, these amounts must be classified as current liabilities since the company does not have an unconditional right to defer the settlement of these amounts in the event employees wish to use their leave entitlement.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.

Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit finding, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

The underlying spirit of angling is that the skill of the angler is pitted against the instinct and strength of the fish and the latter is entitled to an even chance for his life.
